

“Public Policy Analysis Workshop”
Swutel Hotel, Srinakharinwirot University
May 19-22, 2013
SANDEE

Instructor: Nancy Olewiler, School of Public Policy, Simon Fraser University

Sunday, 19 May 2013
14:00-16:00	Overview and Step 1: Define and frame a public policy problem Step 2: Identify key stakeholders and stakeholder perspectives
16:00-16:15	Health break
16:15–17:00	Application to Participant’s Research Projects Discussion and assignment for next day
Monday, 20 May 2013
09:00-10:30	Discussion of problem definition for research projects
10:30-10:45	Health break
10:45-12:00	Step 3: Identify relevant criteria and measures to evaluate policy options
12:00-13:00	Lunch time
13:00-14:30	Step 4: Identify possible policy options
14:30-14:45	Health break
14:45-16:00	Application to research projects
Tuesday, 21 May 2013
09:00-10:30	Step 5: Use a variety of models to research the policy problem
10:30-10:45	Health break
10:45-12:00	Step 6: Identify the outcome of each policy option according to each criterion and assess the possible tradeoffs among options, and rank options
12:00-13:00	Lunch time
13:00-14:30	Step 7: Assess what determines policy adoption and facilitates implementation Step 8: Recommend an action based on policy analysis
14:30-14:45	Health break
14:45-16:00	Application to research projects
Wednesday 22 May 2013
09:00-10:30	Step 9: Communicate recommendation and reasoning to decision-makers
10:30–10:45	Health Break
10:45-12:30	Conclusion and final reporting on application of policy analysis to projects