

Adil Najam

President WWF International, Dean Emeritus and Professor, Frederick S Pardee School of Global Studies, Boston University

Adil Najam is Dean Emeritus and Professor of International Relations and Earth and Environment at the Frederick S Pardee School of Global Studies, Boston University, Boston, US. He previously served as vice-chancellor of the Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS) in Lahore, Pakistan, and the Director of the Boston University Pardee Center for the Study of the Longer-Range Future, USA. Adil has also taught at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), USA, and the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University, USA.

He was a lead author for the third and fourth assessments of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) and has written over 100 scholarly papers and book chapters. Adil is a former trustee of the International Board of World Wildlife Fund (WWF) International (2011-2019) and has served on multiple other boards, including as a chair of the Luc Hoffmann Institute and South Asian Network of Development and Environment Economics. He has frequently served as advisor to international organisations, non-governmental organisations (NGOs), and governments.